Public Interest Disclosure Act: Annual report about disclosures for the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (“ICBC”)

The Public Interest Disclosure Act (PIDA), B.C.’s whistleblower protection law, began to apply to ICBC effective of December 1, 2022. As of December 1, 2022 ICBC has procedures compliant with Section 9 of PIDA in place and accessible to all employees and has appointed two designated officers.

One of the requirements is that “Each year, a chief executive, or a delegate of the chief executive, must prepare a report on all disclosures of wrongdoing that have been made in that year in respect of the ministry, government body or office for which the chief executive is responsible, including disclosures made to the Ombudsperson, if a designated officer of the relevant ministry, government body or office has been notified about the disclosures or investigations.”

In accordance with the following sections of PIDA, for the reporting period of December 1, 2022, to March 31, 2023, the following information is reported:

Section 38 (1)
