Dear JEAN,

I understand your vehicle is at the towing company's storage facility. I confirm that ICBC will pay for reasonable storage fees up to and including December 5, 2020. After that date, you will be responsible for storage fees charged by the facility. You will incur a daily storage fee for as long as your vehicle remains at the facility, and you must deal directly with the facility in connection with payment.

You are required to contact the tow company directly and consider removing your vehicle as soon as possible.

The towing company Entered Tow Company Name has also been notified of the above by email on November 30th, 2020.

Sincerely,

Senior Claims Specialist
